

Ace Murder Mystery

This range of murder mystery dinner party games is specifically designed to provide players with well-rounded, interesting characters and a full plot. Each contains a narrative CD, invitations for diners, character booklets and so on. The games are plotted to fit in with a three course meal, while allowing time for the host and hostess to serve food and drinks.

A Case of Treasure and Treachery

This is Ace's pirate game. It is set in the pirate stronghold of Port Royal, Jamaica with a cast that includes Henry Morgan, Long John Silver and Anne Bonnie. The game contains a CD of sound effects.

Le Mystère des Masques

Set in revolutionary France, this dinner is in honour of King Louis's birthday—even though he's imprisoned in the Bastille. The guests include d'Artagnan, Milady and Robespierre, all seeking to unravel the mysterious death of the King's double.

A Taste of Transylville Terror

This is a game for Halloween. In the little village of Transylville, a group of Gothic characters meet to find out who murdered the local beauty queen. They include Count Dracula, Dr Jekyll (and...) and Kruella le Deville. The game contains a CD of sound effects.
