

Blazing Aces!

Wanted: Card Prospectors

Join our intrepid and fearless hero Joe Joker and his friends as he plays his way across the Wild West. From the loneliness of the early settlers and the madness of the Californian Gold Rush; to the terrifying cattle stampedes and on into Red Indian territory. Just grab your deck of cards, get your family or a few friends together and away you go. Good prospecting!

Welcome to the Wild West!

In this book of fifteen original card games, world leading game designer Reiner Knizia reveals how to use ordinary playing cards in an exciting variety of ways. Each game is demonstrated using detailed illustrated examples, along with playing hints and many variations. There are games here for just one player, many for groups of two to seven players, and even one for up to twenty!

In Blazing Aces! Reiner explores his passion for card games – and particularly poker card combinations - in a number of innovative and entertaining styles.
