

New JKLM titles coming this October

Ascendancy

This is a good-looking space opera game from designer Nigel Buckle (Celtic Quest) – sample artwork is on www.BoardGameGeek.com. Players are different alien races struggling for ... ascendancy over their opponents and the Galactic Empire. The game is played at a strategic level with diceless combat.

- 2-4 players, aged 10+
- 1 hour (basic game), 2 hours (advanced)
- RRP £30.00 (inc VAT)
- Trade price £15.32 (ex-VAT)

Huang Di

Named after the Chinese Emperor who started the construction of the Great Wall, Huang Di has the players competing to be the master builder of all China. Each player has the same options each turn for adding to the wall, so out-guessing their opponents is an important part of the game.

- 2-6 players, aged 10+
- Playing time 60 minutes
- RRP £25.00 (inc VAT)
- Trade price £12.77 (ex-VAT)

Tulipmania 1637

The Dutch market for tulip bulbs was the original investment 'bubble' market. In the game, players are traders looking to ramp up prices and then sell their bulbs before the price nosedives. This clever game of market manipulation can be tried online at www.jklminteractive.co.uk.

- 3-5 players, aged 10+
- Playing time 60 minutes
- RRP £17.00 (inc VAT); Trade price £8.68 (ex-VAT)
