Bohnanza (Jubilee edition) – £2.77

This is the tenth anniversary edition of Uwe Rosenberg's classic bean-trading card game. It comes in a tin, rather than a cardboard box, but is otherwise the same game. This is in German, but is easily playable with English rules, which are available on Amigo's website: http://www.amigo-spiele.de/upload/Bohnanza_Eng_1117.pdf
For 3-5 players, aged 12+, playing time 45 minutes. RRP £6.50 (inc VAT), usual trade price £3.32 (ex VAT), offer £2.77 (ex VAT).

John Silver – £2.98

Designed by Martin Schlegel and published by Eggertspiele, this is a neat little card game. Players aim to collect treasure, but not black spots, and to give their neighbour the apples.

For 2-4 players, aged 10+, playing time 30 minutes. RRP £7.00 (inc VAT), usual trade price £3.57 (ex VAT), offer £2.98 (ex VAT).

Kill the Hippies – £5.53

Gloriously silly card game where the players are the righteous bringing godforsaken hippies to the Lord. Or just shooting them!

Maestro Leonardo – £9.65

Originally published as Leonardo da Vinci by da Vinci Games and designed by Acchitocca. A terrific game in which players compete for the raw materials and workers to develop inventions. Seenot im Rettungsboot (aka Lifeboats) – £10.64

Players attempt to save their team from a sinking ship. Unfortunately, the lifeboats keep springing leaks and somebody has to be thrown overboard... Players vote on who can be dispensed with. This is a new edition of Ronald Wetering's classic Rette sich wer kann. English rules are included.

Top oder Flop – £6.39

Interesting card game of promoting movies. Player use their cards openly to move one film at a time towards the top – or bottom – of the ratings. This is in German, but can easily be played with English rules, available from the publisher's website:
